

ST. NATHY'S COLLEGE 1810 – 2010 BICENTENARY CELEBRATIONS CALENDAR

St. Nathy's College celebrates 200 years in 2010. A series of events throughout 2010 are planned to mark the event. Two weekends in particular will serve as a focus to highlight the celebrations.

Central to our celebrations will be reunions of past classes from St. Nathy's College as well as from St. Joseph's Secondary School and the Vocational School which existed prior to amalgamation in 1995.

The following are the highlights of the Bicentenary Celebrations – all of which are open to the community and public at large.

August 2010

Friday 6 11:00am – 5:00pm Open Day for Past Pupils & Staff - Class Reunions

7:00pm Launch of Book - Memories of Past Pupils
The book is edited by Fr. Leo Henry and will be launched by past pupil Tom Mitchell, former Provost of Trinity College, Dublin.

Saturday 7 11:00am – 5:00pm Open Day for Past Pupils & Staff – Class Reunions

6:00pm Reunion Dinners organised by various past classes

Sunday 8 11:00am – 5:00pm Open Day for Past Pupils & Staff – Class Reunions

5:00pm Buffet for visitors and past pupils

7:00pm Premiere of Documentary on College. The documentary is produced by Kairos Media productions

Monday 9 Feast of St. Nathy

11:00am – 5:00pm Open Day for Past Pupils & Staff – Class Reunions

12:00pm Reopening & Blessing of refurbished Garrison Building

3:00pm Handball Exhibition Tournament

Christy Cooney, President of the G.A.A. will be present

September 2010

Sunday 12th 12:00pm Mass of Thanksgiving – Cathedral
Chief Celebrant, Cardinal Sean Brady

2:00pm Oak Tree planting ceremony

5:00pm Bicentenary Banquet – Abbeyfield Hotel

December 2010

Wed. 8th 7:00pm Launch of the History of St. Nathy's College
Written by Xandra Kilduff

Tuesday 14th 8:00pm Carol Service - Cathedral
Official Closing of the Bicentenary Year